Dear Teachers:
Thank you for downloading my free lesson sample. This is the PDF version of the A to Z Memory Booklet.

Also FREE on TpT, please find the Smart Board or Power Point versions. They both have the memory book in WORD so teachers can edit the booklet to fit their own classrooms. Each page of the booklet has its own slide, too, on these presentations:

MY MEMORY BOOK

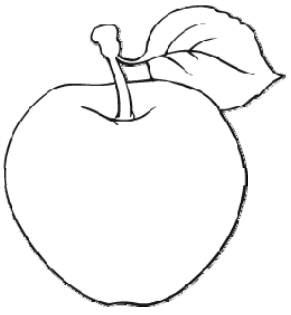

is for Good Apples

Volunteers and

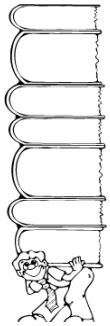

School staff, too,

Helped us bloom and grow.

is for Books

Daily reading helped us grow,

As readers and thinkers, you know.

C is for Class of: ____-____

The best class ever
We were told . . .
And, how we did grow.

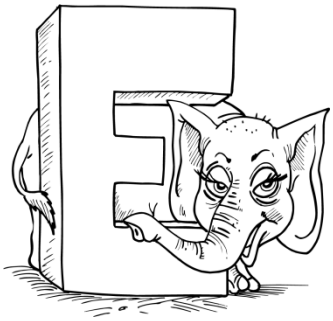

is for Doing

Our Best in Class

Careful work,
Careful thinking,
The result is work worth viewing.

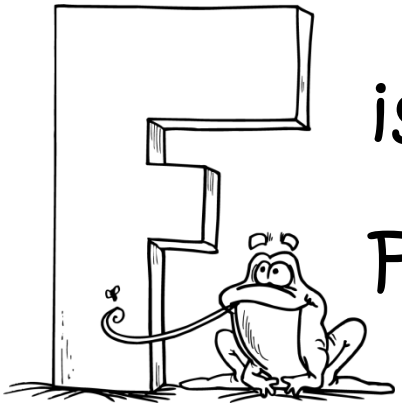

is for Eating Lunch

In the lunchroom

With classmates all,

Healthy food made us tall.

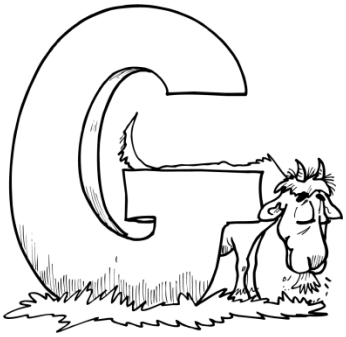

F is for the First Day of School

A new class and
New friends too,
Hello! Hello!
I'm glad to meet you.

G is for Gym Class,

It's the Best!

Exercises, games,
Gym shoes, too . . .
It doesn't matter
If we win or lose.

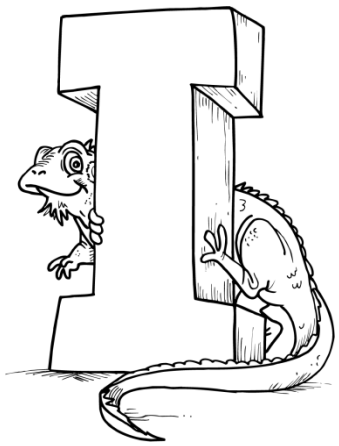

H is for Happy Days

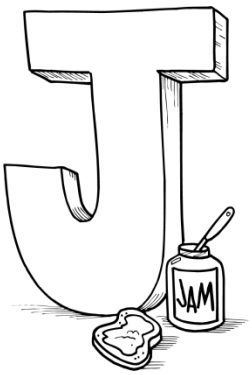

Looking forward to special days,
Helped us enjoy school always.

I is for I like Music!

Making Music,
That I like.
I hold the Instruments really tight!

is for jotting down stories in Writer's Workshop

Writer's workshop, Everyday.
I could think
Of so many things to say.

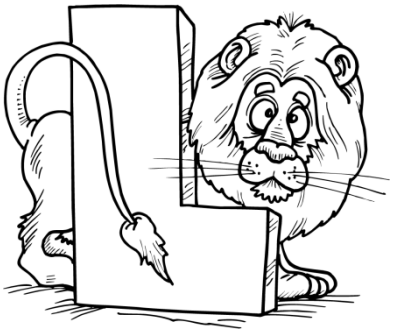

is for Kindness Towards Friends

Helpful, cheerful, and kind,

That's the classmate I have in mind.

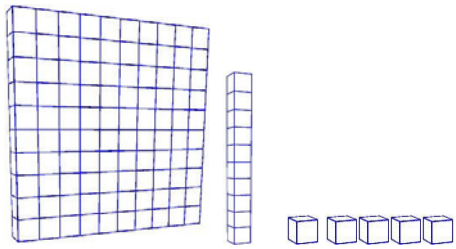

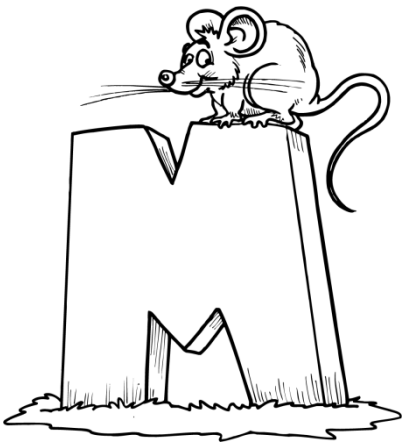

L is for Learning about Place Value

100's, 10's and 1's

In math class,

That is learning that will last!

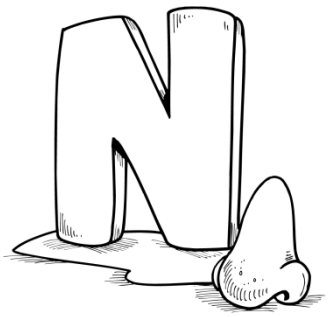

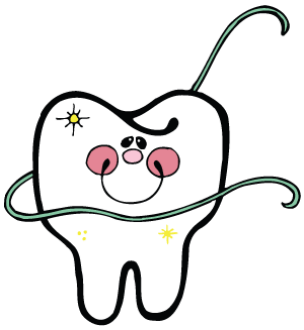

is for Maps

I like globes and maps, it is true,

I want to learn more about continents, and the oceans blue.

is for Getting New Teeth

Lose a tooth
A new one grows,
That's what happens,
Now I know.

O is for

October Fun

October, fall, leaves and sun,
Memories, warm and fun.

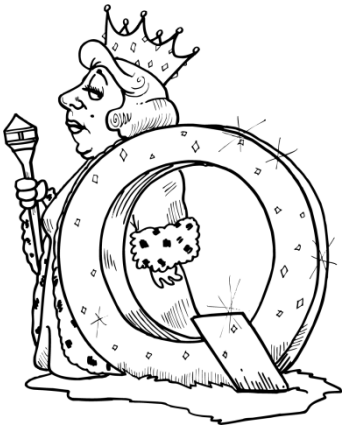

is for Picture Day

Exciting Picture Day,
Everyone looks so
Nice and neat.
Be sure to sit up
Straight in the seat.

is for Quietly Working

Thinking hard,
Working quietly.
We learn so much
More this way.

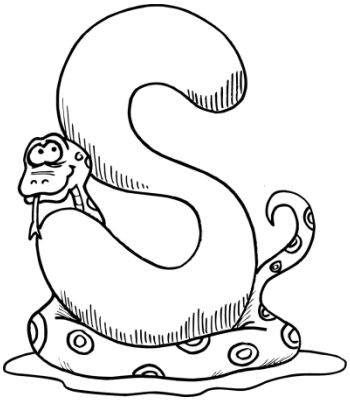

is for Reading with Strategies

Background knowledge,
Making Connections,
Asking questions,
And Digging Deeper . . .
All help me be a better reader!

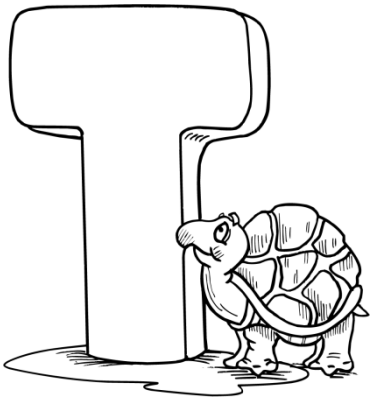

is for

Star of the Week

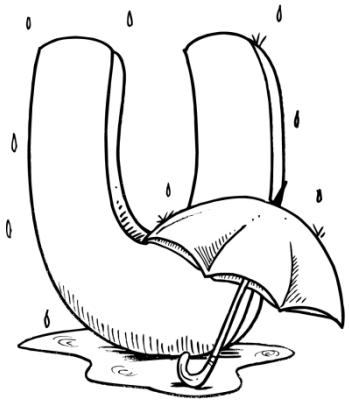

Being the star
Helped me see
How to lead.

T is for My Teacher And Me

My teacher
And, of course, me,
Make a pair
That's great, you see.

U is for Unit:

Science Units

What's the weather?
What does the thermometer say?
That's how we begin the day.

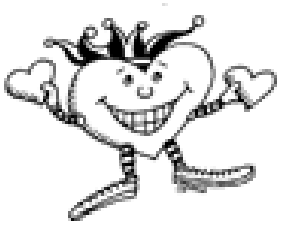

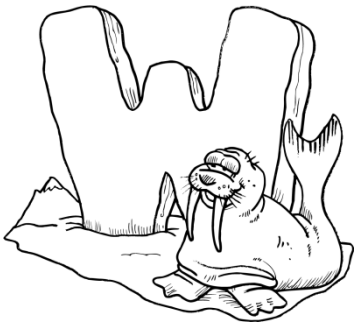

V is for Valentine's Day

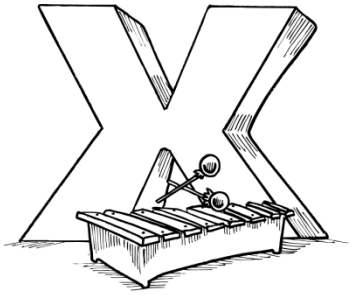

A Valentine for everyone,

Made the day so much fun.

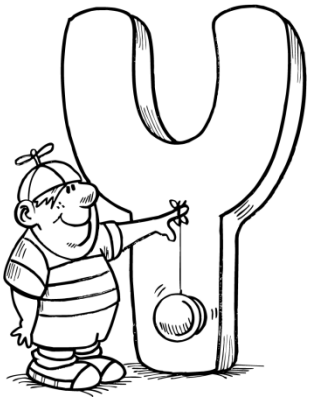

is for wishes, and here are mine!

X is for Xylophone

Sounds from the Xylophone,

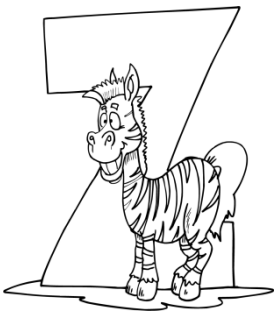

Helped us quiet down.

Y is for the Yo-Yo

in our Math Problems

We studied coins,
Some of our favorite things.
About them we even did sing.

Z is for Zero Days

of School Left

This grade was fun,

_____ grade,

Here I come!
